

Hon. Joe Reeder, Shareholder, Greenberg Traurig LLP

Joe Reeder's distinguished career as an attorney was highlighted with four years of public service as the 14th Under Secretary of the Army. Mr. Reeder served essentially as the Army's COO, with specific responsibilities for long-range planning, material requirements, readiness, acquisition reform, infrastructure reduction and financial management of the Army. He served as the Army's focal point for international affairs, with specific focus on NATO, Panama and Latin America. Mr. Reeder also served three years as Chairman of the Panama Canal Commission's Board of Directors where he oversaw a massive, multi-billion dollar infrastructure program. As Army Undersecretary he also oversaw military support to local, state and federal agencies related to civilian law enforcement, civil disturbance, disaster relief and emergency planning. He also served on the five-member DOD Base Realignment Closure (BRAC) Council. Mr. Reeder returned to the private practice of law in October 1997.

Mr. Reeder's accomplishments and involvement extend beyond the professional world, including: trustee of the AUSA, member of the American Law Institute, National Board of Directors for the Armed Services YMCA, National Board of Governors for the USO, Board of Governors for the Army Navy Country Club, West Point Chapter of Golden Key, Ethics Committee Chair and Board of Directors for the National Defense Industry Association (NDIA), Board of Advisors for Our Military Kids, Co-Chair (with former Congressman Owen Pickett) for the Virginia Military Base Realignment Commission and Board of Directors for the Marshall Legacy Institute.
